And the second crop, which has never been a success in the Bluegrass State, for one year below the first produced at Risson.

Mr. M. W. Cravens, a Kentucky tobacco raiser, who began in 1901 to raise the plant, found that the plant would ripen in from seventy to eighty-five days, which is a much shorter period than is required in Kentucky. It occurred to him that he could produce a second crop, as frost did not come until late in November. He tried it, and it was a success this year, and was at first anticipated.

Another objection urged by the Mayor was that nearly all the largest plants of the city were in the hands of foreigners, and that such an ordinance and begin paying taxes from the very outset. They built up handsome trades and continued to grow.

petitors come in a get a grant exempting them for five years. In this manner one plant doing business has to pay while another in the same line does not, but still the old establishment has to meet the new one in business.

In disposing of the matter the Aldermen ordered a new measure brought in repealing the general exemption bill.

Society girls played tag on the streets to-day; and, contrary to the rule, all of the young men who were not "tagged" were "it." The girls swarmed the main streets and chased every untagged man and boy. Each man had to pay from ten cents to $1 for a "tag."

The money was freely given, because it was for the equipment of the Jane M. Case Memorial Hospital. Dignified business men and stolid professors of Ohio Wesleyan University were set upon by the feet-footed maidens, and in many cases the chase was exciting in the ex-
